Sunday	Whisky Trivia! How are whisky barrels made? The process is tedious and requires precision. The wood is carefully selected and processed, then the barrel is "raised", heated, toasted, and finally charred on the inside with an open flame. After testing to ensure a good seal, it's sent off to distilleries to age whisky!	Whisky Trivia! How are whisky barrels made? The process is tedious and requires precision.
